You can also independently search for flashcards, textbooks or quizzes.

Folders

If you are part of a class that requires homework to be completed on Quizlet.

You can access a folder created for your class. You will be able to see all the specific quizlet tasks set for students here.

The screenshot displays the Quizlet web interface. On the left, a sidebar menu includes options like Home, Your library, Study groups, Notifications, Flashcards, Study Guides, Games, Practice Tests, and Expert solutions.
