What is Languages Online?

- Languages Online is a free educational website offering interactive, self-marking language learning activities for students learning French, German, Spanish, Italian, and Latin .
- The site is widely used in UK schools as a supplement to classroom teaching. Teachers often set specific exercises from the site as homework or revision tasks

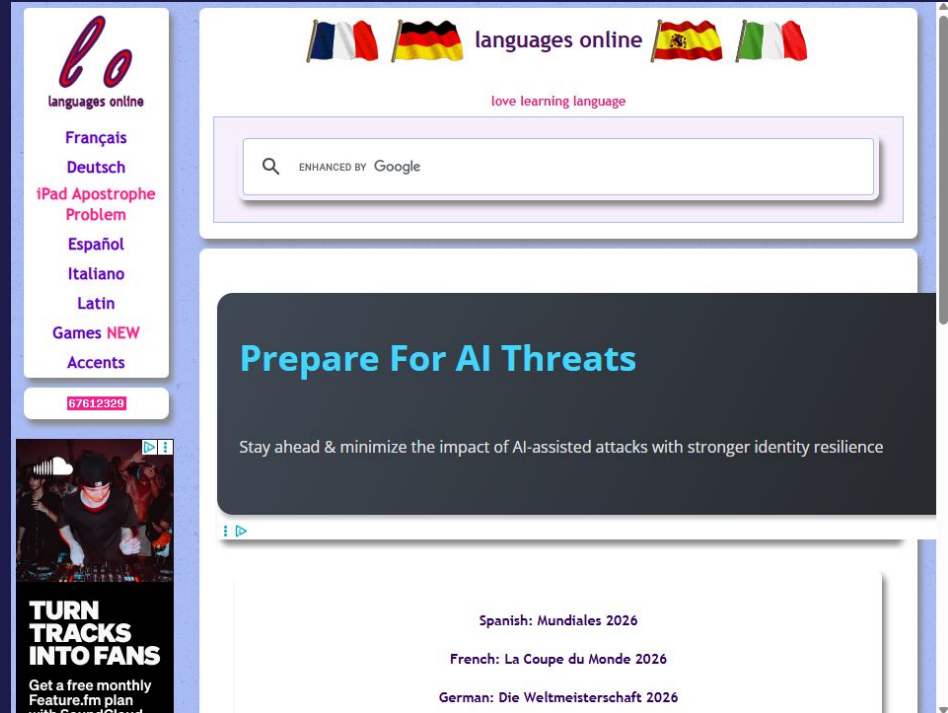

How to Access It

Website:

<https://www.languagesonline.org.uk>

No login required: simply open the website and select a language . There are no passwords or accounts needed.

Mobile-friendly: Most exercises now work on phones and tablets. Look for exercises marked “refreshed” for the best mobile experience

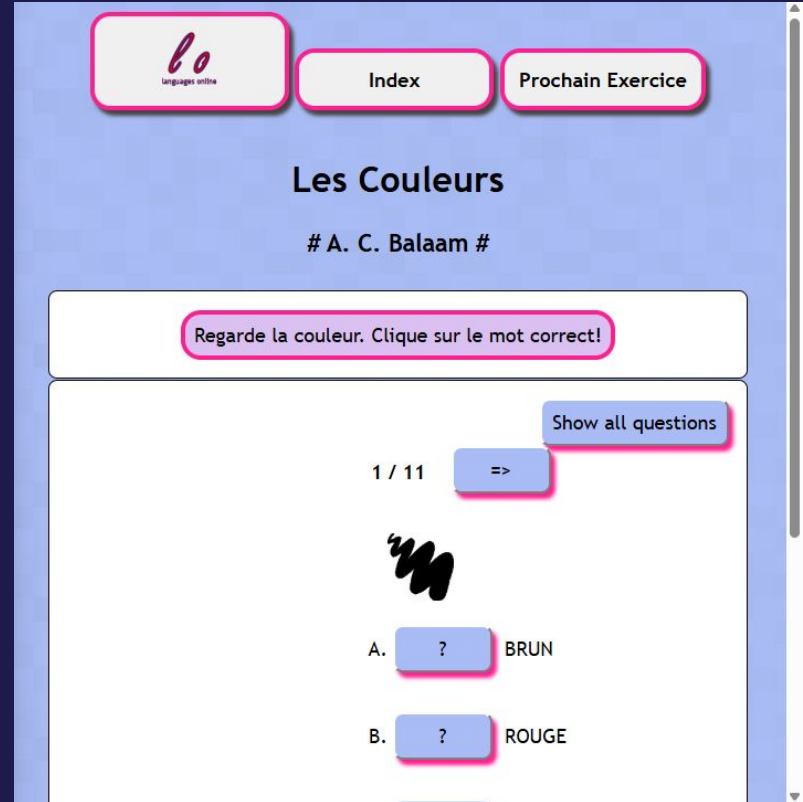

The screenshot shows the homepage of the 'languages online' website. At the top, there are flags for France, Germany, Spain, and Italy, followed by the text 'languages online' and 'love learning language'. Below this is a search bar with a magnifying glass icon and the text 'ENHANCED BY Google'. On the left side, there is a vertical menu with the following options: 'Français', 'Deutsch', 'iPad Apostrophe Problem', 'Español', 'Italiano', 'Latin', 'Games NEW', and 'Accents'. Below the menu is a pink button with the number '67612329'. At the bottom left, there is a promotional banner for 'TURN TRACKS INTO FANS' with the text 'Get a free monthly Feature.fm plan with SoundCloud'. The main content area features a large dark grey box with the title 'Prepare For AI Threats' and the subtitle 'Stay ahead & minimize the impact of AI-assisted attacks with stronger identity resilience'. Below this, there are three links: 'Spanish: Mundiales 2026', 'French: La Coupe du Monde 2026', and 'German: Die Weltmeisterschaft 2026'.

What Can Students Do?

The site uses software to create interactive exercises that mark themselves automatically and give students a score. Students can complete the following types of activities:

- Grammar Practice: Verb conjugation drills, tense practice, gap-fill exercises
- Vocabulary: Topic-based word practice (family, food, animals, colours)
- Reading Comprehension: Short texts with questions to check understanding
- Games: Crosswords, word searches, matching, jumbled sentences

The screenshot shows a web interface for a language exercise. At the top, there is a logo for 'lo' (languages online) and two buttons: 'Index' and 'Prochain Exercice'. The main title is 'Les Couleurs' followed by the author's name '# A. C. Balaam #'. Below this, a pink-bordered box contains the instruction 'Regarde la couleur. Clique sur le mot correct!'. To the right of the main content area is a button labeled 'Show all questions'. The exercise progress is shown as '1 / 11' with a right arrow button. The current question features a black ink blot. Below the blot are two options: 'A. ? BRUN' and 'B. ? ROUGE', each with a question mark in a pink box.

Key Features for Parents

As a parent, here are the main things you need to know about this platform:

- Free to use: no subscription or payment required
- Self-marking: students get instant feedback on answers
- Teacher-recommended: many schools specifically direct students to this site
- Covers all levels: from beginner topics to advanced grammar (A-Level)
- Grammar focus: especially good for verb practice and tense drills
